Genesee Health System (formerly Genesee County Community Mental Health) is once again bringing world renowned anti-bullying expert and self-defense instructor, Rener Gracie to Flint to teach a one-week Bullyproof Summer Camp. The camp is sponsored by Genesee Health System (GHS) and is free to Genesee County Residents; but space is VERY limited and you must reserve your child's spot in advance, so don't wait!

Applications must be received by May 30th; but slots will be filled on a first-come first-served basis.

Submit applications online at www.genhs.org or by mail to:
GHS Bullyproof
420 W. 5th Ave, Flint MI 48503
or fax to 810.257.3770
